

8/25/2016

A VOTE WAS TAKEN Sept 7, 1922 AS TO WHETHER
TO HOLD COUNTY-WIDE Athletic Contests in 1923. IT IS POSSIBLE THE VOTE WAS NO, AS NO MENTION OF SPORTS IN THE 1923 White Teacher Institute agenda.

Edw

Scanned

1/28/2022

4.2A YR 1922

WHITE TEACHER INSTITUTE

Program for Loudoun County Teachers' Institute

Lincoln High School

General Sessions

Supt. O. L. Emerick, Presiding

Thursday, Sept. 7, 1922. - First Day- 10:30 A. M.

1. Opening Exercises.
2. Roll Call (Every teacher present).
3. The Schools' Part in the Loudoun County Fair - F. H. James, Manager.
4. Scientific Temperance Work in the Schools - Mrs. H. M. Hoge
5. Address - Hon. Harris Hart
6. Should the Teacher Subscribe to the Virginia Journal of Education and Join the State and County Associations? - J. S. Simpson
7. Organization of County Association.

Intermission 12:30 - 1:30

Friday, Sept. 8, 1922. - Second Day - 10:30 A. M.

1. Opening Exercises.
2. Roll Call (Every teacher present).
3. Address on Public Health followed by Miss Anne Gulley (School Nurse)
4. A County-wide Community League Organization - N. C. Starke, County Director
5. Round Table Discussion on League Work.
6. The Community Fair or Horse Show as an Aid to the School - J. R. Lintner

Intermission 12:00 - 1:00

High School Group

B. A. Brann, Presiding

First Afternoon

A Model Course of Study for a Three-teacher High School.

Shall the County-wide Athletic Contests be Held Again in 1923?
(Discussion limited to fifteen minutes and ballot taken)

Second Afternoon

L. A. Womeldorph, Presiding

The Opening Exercise - Shall the Principal Always Conduct This?

The Science Laboratory - Is it Adequate?

What Relative Proportion of Work Should the Principal and Assistant Have?

Elementary Group      Miss Bertha Gruver, Presiding

First Afternoon

More Emphasis on Civics.

Do We Emphasize Technical Grammar Too Much?

How Much Time Should a First or Second Grade Child Spend Out-of-doors in Play?

What is the Best System for Granting Permission, to Speak, to be Excused, etc.

Second Afternoon

Miss Sarah Cox, Presiding

What Should a Child Know at End of First Year?    Second Year?
(Ref. State Course of Study)

Proper and Improper Methods of Punishment.

Question Box ( Each Teacher to Write Out a Question and Hand to Chairman)

-----
One and Two Room Group - Miss Pearl Coffey, Presiding

First Afternoon

Methods in Arithmetic

Methods in Reading

Question Box (Each Teacher to Write Out a Question and Hand to Chairman)

Second Afternoon

Project Methods in Geography

Methods of Getting Improvements Made to Buildings

(At 2:00 P. M. teachers from Broad Run and Leesburg to go into elementary group so that Miss Coffey may have her own teachers).