/ A Builder built a temple,
 He wrought it with grace and skill;
 Pillars and groins and arches
 All fashioned to work his will.
 Men said as they saw its beauty
 "It shall never know decay.
 Great is thy skill, O builder:
 Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher built a temple
 With loving and infinite care,
 Planning each arch with patience,
 Laying each stone with prayer.

None praised her unceasing efforts
 None knew of her wondrous plan
 For the temple the teacher
 builded
 Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
 Crumbled into the dust,
 Low lies each stately pillar,
 Food for consuming rust.

But the temple the teacher
 builded
 Will last while the ages roll,
 For that beautiful unseen temple
 Is a child's immortal soul.

Dear Teacher:

The books listed below on Audio-Visual Aids to Instruction are available in my office. They were borrowed from the Virginia State College Library and must be returned by Dec. 18. Therefore, I hope that you will avail yourselves of the opportunity to use them at once. If teachers borrowing these books will use them for not more than a week at a time, I feel that each teacher will be able to make use of them.

Very truly yours,
