Loudoun COUNTY.

ANNUAL REPORT of Superintendent of Schools for Year ending July 31, 1890.

The Superintendent will answer briefly the following questions:
1st. How can the efficiency of the Public Schools of your county be improved? Ans. Trustees should be required to visit the schools and they should be paid for their services. Anything that would bring the people themselves into closer symple Thy with officers and teachers and that would induce them to keep their children in regula attendance upon the schools, would be of great service - Such an increase of salaries as would enable us to retain the services of well-trained and experienced teachers.
2d. Date of Annual Meeting of County or City School Board for reviewing the work of 1889-90. Ans. August 12 th + 2 7 th
3d. Were the Accounts of Treasurer laid before the County or City Board and duly examined? Ans. They were carefully examined by the b. Suft aided by the Dist blerks
4th. Was their condition satisfactory?
Ans. Enlirely 28.
5th. Were the Records of the District Boards all laid before the County Board and duly acted on according to law? Ans. They orece examined by the Suft and results were reported
6th. What was their condition as to accuracy and neatness?
7th. Report any irregularities which may have been discovered in the proceedings of any Board to eather with such action as was taken by the County Board in regard thereto. Ans. As irregularities were discovered and the County Board was not called upon to adjust any difficulties.
8th. Do your District Boards hold regular meetings, and how often?
Ans. They meet regularly - as often as business requires.
9th. State the number of Teachers' Institutes held during the year, and the number of teachers present at each, and whether for white or colored teachers.
Ans. They meet regularly - as often as business requires. 9th. State the number of Teachers' Institutes held during the year, and the number of teachers present at
Ans. They meet regularly - as offen as business requires. 9th. State the number of Teachers' Institutes held during the year, and the number of teachers present at each, and whether for white or colored teachers. Ans. Home - I could not hold a successful lounty Institute without riolating the har. 10th. Were the Accounts of District Boards compared with those of County Superintendent by the County Board, as required by Section 134 of School Law, and what was the result?
Ans. They meet regularly - as offen as business requires. 9th. State the number of Teachers' Institutes held during the year, and the number of teachers present at each, and whether for white or colored teachers. Ans. Home - I could not hold a successful County Institute without violating the law. 10th. Were the Accounts of District Boards compared with those of County Superintendent by the County Board, as required by Section 134 of School Law, and what was the result? Ans. The Dist Clerks the Treasurer and the less Such brought trackly.
Ans. They meet regularly — as often as business requires. 9th. State the number of Teachers' Institutes held during the year, and the number of teachers present at each, and whether for white or colored teachers. Ans. Home — I could not hold a successful County Institute without violating the bar. 10th. Were the Accounts of District Boards compared with those of County Superintendent by the County Board, as required by Section 134 of School Law, and what was the result? Ans. The Dist Clerks, the Treasurer and the less Sufet brought together and compared all their accounts and workers—They corresponded in all respects— 11th. Were all of your teachers supplied with the Virginia School Register, and were these Registers all returned at the class of the session to the District Clerks, as required by low?
Ans. They meet regularly — as often as business required. 9th. State the number of Teachers' Institutes held during the year, and the number of teachers present at each, and whether for white or colored teachers. Ans. Home — I could not hold a successful lounly Institute without riolating the lar. 10th. Were the Accounts of District Boards compared with those of County Superintendent by the County Board, as required by Section 134 of School Law, and what was the result? Ans. The Dist Clerks, the Ineasures, and the less Sufet brought together and compared all their accounts and rouchers— they corresponded in all respects— 11th. Were all of your teachers supplied with the Virginia School Register, and were these Registers all returned at the close of the session to the District Clerks, as required by law? Ans. All but one over supplied—I cannot say how many more end-
Ans. They much regularly — as often as business requires. 9th. State the number of Teachers' Institutes held during the year, and the number of teachers present at each, and whether for white or colored teachers. Ans. Assure — I could not hold a successful County Institute without violating the Lar. 10th. Were the Accounts of District Boards compared with those of County Superintendent by the County Board, as required by Section 134 of School Law, and what was the result? Ans. The Dist Clerks, the Treasurer, and the less Sufet brought together and compared all their accounts and vouchers— they corresponded in all respects— 11th. Were all of your teachers supplied with the Virginia School Register, and were these Registers all returned at the close of the session to the District Clerks, as required by law? Ans. All but one mere supplied—I cannot say how many more returned 12th. Were the salaries of all of your teachers promptly paid at the close of each school month.
Ans. They meet regularly — as often as business required. 9th. State the number of Teachers' Institutes held during the year, and the number of teachers present at each, and whether for white or colored teachers. Ans. Home — I could not hold a successful lounly Institute without riolating the lar. 10th. Were the Accounts of District Boards compared with those of County Superintendent by the County Board, as required by Section 134 of School Law, and what was the result? Ans. The Dist Clerks, the Ineasures, and the less Sufet brought together and compared all their accounts and rouchers— they corresponded in all respects— 11th. Were all of your teachers supplied with the Virginia School Register, and were these Registers all returned at the close of the session to the District Clerks, as required by law? Ans. All but one over supplied—I cannot say how many more end-